System Information and Event Management

Establish an active defense posture with real-time situation awareness on the DeltaV™ network.

NOVASPECT

The Novaspect's System Information and Event Management (SIEM) solution provides a single tool to review all your logs in one place. This helps reduce the time needed to troubleshoot issues and can help prevent issues with early detection. The SIEM for DeltaV Systems can be set up to allow you to proactively monitor events and logs in real-time by correlating information and event logs from your integrated DeltaV control system, including Windows Events and Syslog and Network Device.

KEY COMPONENTS

- Architectural consultation to ensure the best overall deployment for your organization.
- Installation services to ensure the appliance is configured properly to collect information from all nodes and devices.
- Customization of rules, alerts, dashboards, and automated report generation.
- Training services for your local engineer or IT personnel to monitor the appliance and understand the alerts.
- Maintenance services to check the historical logs and communication integrity. Certified engineers can also investigate anomalies and help identify potentially malicious activity.
- Configuration updates as needed to improve security visibility of your DeltaV System assets.
- Incident response services are also available to provide expert investigation and forensic analysis.
